91Z Miscellaneous Information

4380 Dorris St

On 09/05/2021 at 02:07 hours, Officer Ayres (82234) reported a disorder at 4380 Dorris St. While in the area of the 4300 block of Fagan St., I was flagged down by the owner of Nephews, Martels Carter. Mr. Carter stated there was a large group of individuals gathered outside of Nephews. Mr. Carter stated the group that was gathered were not patrons of the bar and he wished to have them removed from the bar property.

There were 8 CPD Officers that responded to the bar to assist in removing the parties from the parking lot of Nephews. In addition to the large crowd in the parking lot, there were vehicles parked in the roadway and large groups of people walking in the roadway to and from vehicles causing a disruption to the normal flow of traffic. CPD Officers on scene ordered all individuals present to leave the property, as Mr. Carter stated anyone outside of the bar, in the parking lot and surrounding areas were not patrons of the bar and were no longer allowed on the property. The large group of people did leave the area at the direction of officers present.

No further action was taken at this time for this incident.
